

Christmas Traditions in My Family

At Christmas time, each family does things differently. Each of us has our own Christmas traditions we follow each year. Some people leave carrots for the reindeer and some people leave oats.

What sorts of things do you do each year with your family to prepare for Christmas? Write down what you do in your house and draw a picture. After, we will share our special holiday experiences with each other.

