

WEBSTER WITCH'S UGLY POTION!

Wicked Webster Witch has had the notion,
Of making a brand new ugly potion!
She needs bits of slime and grease and snot,
To put into her ugly pot!

By Pete Wells

First she took some hair from _____ head,
"Hmmm, not too greasy!" the old hag said.

(Feel wig)

"Next a bogey picked from _____ nose,
Into my bubbling pot it goes!"

(Taste mushy peas)

"Next some sticky wax from _____ ear,
That'll do nicely, thank you dear!"

(Feel modelling clay)

"From _____ mouth I need some spit,
To spice my mixture up a bit!"

(Spray)

A soggy drip from under _____ arm,
Will make my potion work a charm!

(Smell deodorant)

Next clippings from _____ fingernails,
"My potion's looking great!" Webster wails!

(Scissor snip on BigMack)

A botty burp from _____ bot,
Will help this potion smell a lot!

(Blow up balloon and let it go!)

A bit of _____ hairy knee,
Makes this potion as powerful as can be.

(Feel brush)

A drop of sweat from _____ feet,
And my potion will be complete!

(Feel damp sock)

WEBSTER WITCH'S UGLY POTION!

But Webster Witch has got it wrong,
She made her potion much too strong!
Instead of making a spell that's horribly nauseous,
The potion makes you completely gorgeous!

(Taste potion (pop or juice)
then look in mirror.)
